Tracks

We go to walk the woods
On winter's eve.
We go and leave
Our footprints in the snow,
And, though we don't say why,
We really know:
WE go where fresher breezes blow
Than in the world of man.

We go to watch the sun
Set on the hill.
WE go until
Our shadows fall behind
And, though we don't say why,
You soon may find
Us making tracks again
That blend and wind
As though we two were blind.
