WOODY GEISE

BE CAREFUL

Be careful how you hold this dream
I dream of you,
For dreams are fragile things
And may be crushed.
A dream that's borne upon a moonlit night
May not be there at all in bright sunlight.
Be sure before you break its fragile threads
Or blow away its flame,
Be sure you know of what this dream is made
And recognize its many-sided frame.
Be sure you do not need this dream;
Be sure.
Be careful how you hold this dream
I dream of you.
Be careful, oh my dear,
For sometimes dreams come true.
