SONNET

Come, let us love until the morning light
Steals from us
The embrace of night.

Come, let us love until the morning breeze
Sweeps the sky
Of webs night did weave.

Come, let us love until the morning veil
Drapes the night
And dark passion pales.

Come, let us love until the morning sun
Finds us two
Where once we were one.

With night, in passion we merge our souls
With light, we pull toward opposite poles.
