e. e. and i

by Lydia Webb

e. e. and i
sat on burnt stump tree talking, laughing till
skies blue ran out our eyes.
sun west set
shadows evening cast
moon east rose
home we went last

e. e. and i
next day log seat
cussed, discussed when
clouds white came out our ears.
fog in set
stars up high
love made we
said we goodbye.

e. e. and i we think foolish words are (times at).
symbols words are, communications no (timesome).
conclusion come we to:

Golden
Is
Silence.
