SATURDAY PRIEST

Play the tune again old man,
Make the monkey dance
For eyes are bleeding birthday bliss,
Oh how the horses dance!

Play the tune again old man,
And make a cup of dimes
For chords alone won't thrill them all;
Insure of good the times.

Play the tune again old man
Perform the playday priest.
Accept their tithes of yestermore
Lend more to those of least.

Play the tune again old man,
And send them home for rest
As morning is the day to give
They must be full of zest.
