Night Games
by Freida G. McIntyre

Quietly, softly, translucently, silkily, the sun awakens
and shoos the moon
out the dawning door
saying -
I can do it
don't ne'er come back -
'tis all of mine!

Yet, the selfish orb of nighten light returns -
plays "guess who" with the golden sun -
and while the blindfolded sun cannot see -
Runs around to take his-her place
and smiles -

meditates -
rests -
orbits -

shines on,
shines on.
